

Integrate Peace into Your Club's Culture

Successful Rotary clubs engage members, expand their community reach, and celebrate their impact. Integrating positive peace concepts into the work we already do, heightens our relevance given the stresses of polarization, isolation, economic strain and uncertainty that more and more people are feeling.

Contact Peace Activators Larry Horton (Zone 26) at Rotary5495Larry@icloud.com and Suzanne Bragdon (Zone 27) at suzannebragdon@gmail.com for ideas on how to get started. See tools and resources below.

Tools to incorporate positive peace into club projects:

<https://my.rotary.org/en/document/positive-peace-project-design-tool>

Handbook and ideas for planning and hosting a Positive Peace Event; consider applying for district or global grant funding to offset workshop costs:

<https://my.rotary.org/en/document/positive-peace-action-guide>

Become a Peacebuilding Club: <https://rotaryactiongroupforpeace.org/peacebuilder-clubs-2/>

Planting a Rotary Peace Pole: <https://rotarypeacepoles.world/>